6. Notes for Application and Assignment Procedure

- 1. Roommate and room type may not fully match the applicant's preferences, and the assigned roommate may be either an international or a Korean student
- 2. Any requests to change rooms or buildings will not be accepted
- 3. The dormitory is a shared living environment. Students may encounter inconveniences such as noise, differences in daily routines with unit mates or roommates, and other aspects of communal living. These factors should be carefully considered, and applications should be submitted only by those comfortable with shared dormitory life
- 4. E-House is a suite-style dormitory with single, double, triple, or quad rooms in suites accommodating 2-10 students. The assigned number of people refers to the number of students per room, not per unit
- 5. I-House is designated for international students such as exchange students and language center students. Male students may also reside in the building
- 6. If maintenance work is carried out in the dormitory, students may experience noise, and workers may enter the building accompanied by staff members
- 7. Students may be temporarily relocated to an emergency or guest room due to maintenance work. In such cases, the new room may be of a different type than the originally assigned room

8. Wi-Fi connectivity may be unstable, as multiple users will be sharing the same internet line. This may limit access to online classes or exams
9. Curfew Policy
 - Applicable to: Undergraduate students of E-House and Hanwoori (not applicable to I-House)
 - Curfew hours: 12:00 AM to 5:00 AM
10. Students are not allowed to visit their assigned rooms before the official check-in date (early check-in is not available)
 - ※ Dorm room pictures: <http://dmtry.ewha.ac.kr/> → Facilities → Rooms
11. If a student cancels their dormitory assignment after being assigned a room or withdraws from the dormitory during the residence period, all subsequent dormitory applications will be automatically cancelled. In such cases, the student may apply again starting from the following semester; reapplication is not permitted for the semester in which the cancellation or early withdrawal occurs
12. If a student becomes ineligible for dormitory residence after being assigned (e.g., due to leave of absence, dismissal, or other reasons), the dormitory assignment will be cancelled, and reapplication for the same semester will not be permitted. Students who have already moved in must notify the dormitory office immediately and vacate their room. Noncompliance may result in penalty-based eviction and disqualification from future dormitory applications
